Allison Oaks Vineyards tasting room is located at 221 East Main Street in Downtown Yadkinville. The vineyard is nestled in the rolling hills 1.3 miles east of the tasting room. The vineyard was once the location of the old Yadkinville airport. The first vines were planted early 2000 in the grassy runway next to the old airplane hangers. Our grapes are hand picked and fermented in small batches to bring out the distinctive taste of the Yadkin Valley. Our goal is to create great wines on a small scale.

Offerings

River de Vine Vineyards grapes are grown on the Johnson family farm overlooking the Yadkin River near Boonville. Brothers Von and Kerry Johnson took over the family operation from their parents and realizing the vineyard potential of the land, Von enrolled in the Viticulture Program at Surry Community College. The vineyard was planted in 2001 on former tobacco and grain fields. The natural beauty of the rolling hills and the ancient winding river inspired their passion to produce a divine wine in the Yadkin Valley.
